

House Resolution No. 3365

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably have assisted their young charges in obtaining the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Norman D. Peters of Macon has attained considerable distinction as a vocational building trades instructor with the Macon County R-I School District, a vocational calling he will draw to a close on May 24, 2005, in well-deserved retirement; and

Whereas, employed by the Macon County R-I School District for twenty years, Norman Peters also has been self employed by Nor-Vic Company; and

Whereas, Norman Peters has helped ensure the highest standards of conduct and performance in his chosen field of endeavor through his membership in the Association for Career and Technical Education and the Missouri State Teachers Association; and

Whereas, an active member of the Macon community, Norman Peters participates in Macon County Park Board, Macon County Fair Board, and Macon County Young Farmers organizations; and

Whereas, Norman Peters is the beloved husband of Karen J. Peters; the loving father of Micheal and Susan Peters, Shannon and Sandy Peters, Lorri and Doyle Cook, and Meisha and John Wilson; and the devoted grandfather of Kristin Cook, Tyler Cook, and Johnie Wilson; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of such outstanding citizens as Norman Peters:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive career of Norman Peters as an educator and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as he partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Norman D. Peters of Macon, Missouri.
